Park Madison Partners' Nancy Lashine Speaks at the Toigo Foundation's 2nd Annual Groundbreakers Summit

Joins panel of distinguished women professionals in the financial industry to share insights on how to become a more effective leader

New York, NY, December 18, 2012 – Nancy Lashine, Managing Partner and Co-founder of Park Madison Partners, joined a panel of prominent professionals at the 2nd Annual Groundbreakers Summit to share her experience and inspire other women to become effective leaders in the financial industry and to better manage their careers. Groundbreakers is a women in leadership summit organized by the Toigo Foundation.

“Park Madison Partners has long been a supporter of Toigo and other programs that help women succeed in their careers, particularly in the early to middle stages where important career decisions are made,” said Ms. Lashine. “We were honored to be part of this important Toigo program and to share our experience with other professionals to help educate and mentor women to attain leadership roles within the financial industry including real estate, banking and investment management.”

Ms. Lashine was part of the summit's View from the Top panel discussion.

For more than 20 years, the Toigo Foundation has helped bring greater diversity into financial industry and other areas of business that control capital. Its goal is to spark a dialogue and foster connections that help women thrive – at work, in their communities and at home.
