Park Madison Partners Participates in iGlobal Forum Real Estate Private Equity Summit in New York

Panel discussion with Nancy Lashine addresses the opportunities and challenges in raising capital in 2013 and beyond

New York, NY, October 10, 2013 – Nancy Lashine, Managing Partner and Co-founder of Park Madison Partners, this week joined a panel of industry experts for the 9th Annual Real Estate Private Equity Summit. The panel focused on providing views and trends on the fundraising space as well as overcoming fundraising challenges and finding opportunities for capital in the marketplace. The senior-level forum, which took place on October 9th in New York City, was organized by iGlobal Forum.

“We continue to see a great deal of opportunities in the market not just for established funds, but for emerging managers looking to raise capital in the commercial real estate space in the coming years,” said Ms. Lashine. “We believe fundraising success comes from a deep commitment between GPs and fund managers, having the right strategy, timing, and the ability to execute.”
